This could fall under "permitted use"; but intellectual property is often given its own clause... and for good reason. After all, 're only giving users the right to access www.nithyasri-eretails.com for a limited time—and only for the purposes the site was set up for. don't want users downloading, modifying, reproducing, repurposing, or distributing any of the content 've worked so hard to create. Protect the site's images, videos, graphics, and copy. Protect Nithyasri E-Retails India Pvt Ltd and logo, and Electronics, Grocery, Fashion, and many more. This clause should—where possible—list the specific content protected by copyright laws: logos, text, images, taglines, graphics, icons, etc. State the repercussions for stealing r property. And close (or open) the policy with "Copyright © 2019. www.ecolix.com."
